

Agenda: 2016 Healthy Fairs Workshop

Working Together for a Healthy Fair: Environmental Health, Human Health, and Animal Health

Presented by the Minnesota Department of Health Epidemiology and Environmental Health Divisions and the Minnesota Board of Animal Health

Dates and locations: Thursday, April 28th at Bigwood Event Center in Fergus Falls and Wednesday, May 11th at Black Woods Banquet Center in Proctor

9:00 AM: Registration and welcome

9:30 AM: Current environmental health issues
Licensing requirements for vendors
Freshwater and wastewater supply issues
Stories from sanitarians

10:15 AM: Ask a sanitarian

10:25 AM: Small group discussion

10:40 AM: Break

10:50 AM: Current animal exhibition issues
Biosecurity
Avian influenza
Animal ID requirements
Signage in animal areas

11:35 AM: Ask a veterinarian

11:45 AM: Small group discussion

12:00 PM: Networking lunch (meal provided)

12:45 PM: Current human-animal health issues
Best practices for a successful petting zoo
Voluntary certification program

1:45 PM: Ask an epidemiologist

1:55 PM: Break

2:00 PM: Group activity: input from colleagues on your fair's layout. Bring a map of your fairgrounds!

2:45 PM: Wrap-up

3:00 PM: Workshop concludes www.health.state.mn.us/fairs/

